Dear Kathie,

Many, many thanks! On behalf of the Washington Society of Association Executives and attendees at our Bellingham convention, I want to thank you for being our keynote speaker on Tuesday and helping us end our conference with such high-energy and great information. You got rave reviews.

Your program, "How to Reinvent Yourself to Reinvigorate Your Career," was packed with solid, practical, and motivating information, and you presented it in such a wonderfully compelling and entertaining way! It was just what our attendees needed to hear.

I hope you had as much fun as we did. I'm sure you're going to be hearing from many of our members to come do similar programs for their own associations.

Kathie, it was truly a pleasure getting to know you and working with you. I know we'll have an opportunity to work together again soon. Let's keep in touch....

Thanks again for sharing your wisdom, energy, and humor with us!

Best Regards,

Donna Cameron, CAE
Executive Director

P.S. Thanks so much for sending me a copy of "Your Enchanted Life." I'm looking forward to reading it—planning to pack it for a trip to Philadelphia next week!

Good Day!

I just wanted to share some great speaker information with you. Kathie Hightower, a national author and speaker, was one of our speakers at the spring section meeting. She offers a unique style in her approach to work and the fact that we have to be there ... let's enjoy what we are doing!

Some of the comments from evaluations at the section meeting were:

"You were so empowering! Thank you!" (Brenda Fredenberg, Treasure Trails Council)

"Excellent. Learned about me again." (Melody Stuart, Muir Trail Council)

"Great workshop! Thanks for your time and energy!" (Susan Hunter, Big Sky Council)

"This Rocks!" (Lyla Palmer, Treasure Trails Council)

"I would have liked to have all day with Kathie Hightower!"

I have been lucky to hear Kathie once before at another group meeting. The energy that she inspires in any group is awesome. She shares thoughts and ideas that you can use RIGHT now.

She covered content that helps people to accept that they are their own motivation, that inspiration comes from yourself, and that life is meant to be fun. The group was through the entire spectrum from contemplative to active and everyone walked out (in the mid-late afternoon) with an awesome amount of "go for it!".

Please consider her when you are looking for speakers for your next section meeting. Share this folder with your program chair and committee and have them give Kathie a call. I can't give anyone a better reference except to say that this woman has given a new meaning to "Jumping into Life!". She really gives you the energy to be creative, the energy to be joyful at work, the energy to do your job because you WANT to!

Give Kathie a call ... you won't be sorry!

p.s. ... this might be someone to consider for the next (if we have it) collaboration with GSUSA
